DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-2 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Brown et al. (Brown).

Regarding claim 1, Brown teaches at col 10, lines 7-21 and at col 1, lines 15-17, a head (transducer) for recording/reproducing (reading/writing) to and from a magnetic disk. Brown also teaches the actuator and a servo operation. Brown further teaches at col 2, lines 46-61, a range limiting means (crash stop) for limiting a movable range of an actuator. Brown teaches at col 3, lines 2-4, a range specifying means. Brown also teaches at col 4, lines 7-10, a control unit and at col 7, lines 18-24, the track pitch can be selectively varied (corrected) in writing a servo track.

Regarding claim 2, Brown teaches the additional features of claim 1 as follows. A range specifying stopper for setting a specific range of an actuator is taught by Brown at col 11, line 16 to col 12, line 27. An actuator having a head arms for supporting and moving the head is described by Brown at col 3, lines 60-62.

Regarding claim 8, Brown teaches at col 3, lines 2-4, writing servo signals at a specific pitch. Detecting and comparing the number of servo tracks recorded and a set value is described at col 11, line 16 to col 12, line 27. Correcting and writing at a desired pitch is described at col 7, lines 18-24.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 3-7 and 9-12 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
